Job Description

Prifysgol Wrecsam
Wrexham University

Faculty/Department	FACE
Section	Cyber & Computing
Job Title	Graduate Teaching Assistant in Cyber & Computing
Reports to	Principal Lecturer in Cyber and Computing
Grade	[ OA2 ]

Principal Accountabilities

The Graduate Teaching Assistant will primarily assist academic staff in providing a high-quality student experience, which adds value to all stages of the learning experience. The post will provide additional support for students, which may include teaching, face-to-face drop-in sessions, on-line support, and assistance to students with their writing, technical (e.g. mathematics) and study skills.

Applicants must have an honors degree in a relevant discipline and if appropriate be a member of a relevant professional body. An MSc, Mres or MA would be an advantage. Applicants need to have proven communication and organisational skills, an understanding and awareness of the UK higher educational system, and of the issues that may arise in such an environment. Successful applicants would be required to undertake and successfully complete the full-time MPhil in order to fulfil the role with the possibility of transfer to PhD.

Key Tasks

Deliver activities to support lecturing staff by undertaking delivery of seminars, tutorials, provision of regular contact with students, and other group work to develop student skills, under supervision or in liaison with senior staff.

Liaise with senior staff regarding contributions to module development, planning of teaching and monitoring of student progress.

Assist where appropriate with lecture and seminar preparation.

Keep abreast of current literature in the subject areas being taught.

Assist in the delivery of lectures/tutorials within an established programme of study, based on defined objectives and student needs.

Identify and participate in research opportunities where appropriate and in line with Associate Dean approval.

Identifying research income generation opportunities where appropriate.

Where necessary, work with and support the Technicians/Demonstrators to provide practical classes and demonstrations to students in a seminar environment, to develop student skills, and where applicable carry out, run samples and experiments, and interpret results for teaching.

Assist in the organisation and running of examination/assessment activity, in liaison with senior managers.

Carry out related marking, assessment preparation, and other administrative functions under supervision of senior managers to support the team.

Depending on area of work, be responsible for conducting risk assessments and ensuring that health and safety precautions are adhered to.

Support students by providing drop-in sessions to assist with the preparation of projects/presentations etc.

Provide support as advised by senior managers during field trips and other outreach activities.

Actively engage in both internal and external networking opportunities, promoting the University in a positive light and encouraging engagement from outside parties.

Actively participate in student recruitment activities, open days, school visits and other opportunities that will help increase student numbers, and make the University a place of choice for study.

Plan and prioritise own workload daily, including preparation for teaching support.

Any other duties, as dictated by the Line Manager.

At all times adhere to, champion, and promote the Faculty's values and strategic vision.

Undertake any other duties that may be required.

Special Features

- The post is linked to enrolment on a full-time MPhil programme with the potential for transfer to PhD, and successful completion of this research degree is expected as part of the role.
- The role provides an opportunity to gain supervised teaching experience while undertaking postgraduate research, ideal for individuals pursuing an academic career.
- GTAs are expected to work flexibly to meet the demands of the academic calendar, which may include some evening or weekend work during busy teaching or recruitment periods.

- The postholder will be supported in their development through mentoring, professional development reviews, and access to training resources.
- This is a fixed-term role for the duration of the MPhil/PhD study period, and continuation is dependent on satisfactory progress in both academic and GTA responsibilities.

General Duties

You will ensure that appropriate management systems and procedures are in place to meet your health and safety duties and responsibilities contained within the University's health and safety policy. In particular you will ensure that appropriate risk assessments are carried out in respect of significant hazards and that safety inspections are undertaken on at least an annual cycle in each workplace under your control.

It is the responsibility of employees to apply the University's Equal Opportunities Policy in their own area of responsibility and in their general conduct.

All staff have a responsibility for promoting high levels of customer care within their own areas of responsibility.

Staff must be aware of the University's commitment to Sustainability.

All staff must promote healthy behaviour and positive mental health and wellbeing

Post holders are expected to co-operate with the Professional Development Review (PDR) process, engaging in the setting of objectives in order to assist in the monitoring of performance and the development of the individual.

You will assess the training and development needs of each member of staff under your control to ensure they are adequately supported in relation to their work responsibilities.

Such other relevant duties commensurate with the grade of the post as may be assigned by the Manager in agreement with the post holder. Such agreement should not be unreasonably withheld.

The key responsibilities contained in this job description are indicative not exhaustive. Duties and responsibilities may be altered in discussion with the post holder.

All post-holders within the Directorate are expected to be able to provide support across all areas, beyond their immediate team, as requested by the Director and commensurate with their skills, knowledge and experience.

Review

This is a description of the job at the time of issue. It is the University's practice periodically to review and update job descriptions to ensure that they accurately reflect the current nature of the job and requirements of the University and to incorporate reasonable changes where required, in consultation with the job holder.
